

Stephen 'Tin Tin' Duffy recently entered the charts with a song called "Kiss Me". I know it's a re-mixed version and as I prefer the earlier mix, could you find out if it's still available?

Spike, Stockport.

● "Kiss Me" was first released by WEA in October '82 and, although it was promoted tirelessly – we couldn't move in this office for copies of it – it failed to take off. Now that he's with Virgin/10! and WEA have lost the rights to his recordings, your only chance of getting hold of the early version might be to rummage through your local second-hand dealer's shop. Incidentally, Duffy (I call him that as it's my nickname too) has a new single out next month, titled "Icing On The Cake".
